-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

The Amendment filed on May 16, 2005 has been acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Jameson (US 2003/0107597).

Regarding claim 1, Jameson discloses a method (Fig. 3) of analyzing and servicing an imaging device (GUI) comprising:

- receiving data from the imaging device (via 131, Fig. 3);
- determining whether the received data matches existing data (claim 4, lines 2-6);
- upon determining that the received data matches the existing data (claim 4, lines 4-5),

- selecting an action to be taken that correlates with the matched existing data (claim 4, lines 5-6);
- adding the received data to the existing data (paragraph 0241, lines 1-5, Fig. 13).

Regarding claim 2, Jameson discloses:

- converting the received data into a quantifier value (paragraph 0209, lines 1-2, paragraph 0211, lines 1-4);
- wherein the determining step comprises determining whether the quantifier value matches the existing data (paragraph 0210, lines 1-4, claim 4, lines 4-5).

Regarding claim 3, Jameson discloses that

- the existing data comprises a plurality of quantifier value ranges (Fig. 11);
- the determining step comprises determining whether the quantifier value is within one or more of the quantifier value ranges (paragraph 0238, lines 2-5).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 7-25 are allowed.

Reasons For Allowance

The combination or method as claimed wherein calculating a probability value indicating a degree of confidence that the selected action to be taken is a correct action to be taken (claim 4) or adding together units of the received data to form the quantifier value (claim 5) or receiving feedback regarding a condition of the imaging device and a service action taken to change the condition and correlating the feedback with the received data (claim 6) or calculating a quantifier value from the object identifiers and recording the quantifier value and taking action in response to a condition of the imaging device (claim 7) or a quantifier value calculator connected to the object identifier data input to receive object identifier data from which a quantifier value is calculated (claims 20, 25) is not disclosed, suggested, or made obvious by the prior art of record.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on May 16, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to the 35 USC 102 rejections, Applicants argue that Jameson does not disclose an imaging device.

Art Unit: 2863

Examiner's position is that a visual indicator such as an icon, animated image, or video clip is displayed in a GUI, disclosed by Jameson, to facilitate user interaction (see McKenna, US 6,915,528, column 10, lines 20-23).

Applicants further argue that Jameson does not disclose adding the received data to the existing data.

Examiner's position is that the Action Request Manager (131) of Jameson also receives the action definition (paragraph 0219). The received action definition is stored in the Action Data Storage Means (121) (paragraph 0241). Thus, Jameson discloses adding the received data to the existing data.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
